

“I’ve come across an animal that I think might have rabies, but I’m not sure what to do.”

You or a family member has been scratched/bitten

Contact family doctor, public health unit or local emergency department for a risk assessment

Pet/livestock scratched/bitten

Contact local veterinarian for a risk assessment

Wild animal (dead)

Call MNRF at 1-888-574-6656

Wild animal (alive)

Contact local animal control/pest control; if emergency call 911

Bats (dead only)

Call Canadian Wildlife Health Cooperative at 1-866-673-4781